out Important Variance From Direct Testimony.

H Ornet, on the witness stand for the fourth day and under cross-examination for the third day in his trial for the murder of Marion Lambert, continued to hold his own today in the endurance test between himself and David R. Joslyn, special prosecutor. Joslyn again used all the tricks at his command in an effort to break down the story told by the defendant on direct examination, but with little success. For the most part the special prosecutor's manner was though at times he would burst out with a rapid bombardment of questions designed to draw damaging adnissions from Orpet while confused The youth often had recourse to the excuse that he could not remember and at other times repeated his pre-

OFF FOR BORDER

U. S. A., announced today.

Gen. Wood said that many of the troops at concentration camps could not be moved for the present because of being either unprepared or un-equipped. He cited as examples F Battery of the Connecticut Field Ar-tillery and a battery in Baltimore, both of which, he said, he today ordered to Tobyhanna, Pa., to receive instructions under . United States army officers until they shall be con-sidered qualified to start as artillery units for the border.

The big, outstanding feature of the militia situation, as stated today by one in authority, is the small number of men who have been got away after 10 days of hard, continuous work in s nation of 100,000,000 people. Even many of those who have gone to the border were unprepared to go. Cavalry, for example, had to leave without horses, so urgent is the call for the men, and the Government supply of revolvers for the riders already is exhausted.

Instances of the unfitness of some of the troops for active duty are seen in the recall of three units. The New Hampshire infantry was ordered not to entrain, when word was received at Government headquarters that the regiments were not recruited even up to the minimum strength and that the men were not physically fit for service.

B Battery of Connecticut was prompt-ly ordered to go into camp for further hardening upon receipt of word from its commanding officer that it virtually would be murder to send the men to the front. Consequently, with the four Yale batteries, F Battery will go into camp under Capt. Danforth. Orders to the Florida regiment of 80 men were recalled when it was learned that the men were not fit to take the Regular army officers, of course, de plore this situation and say it merely affirms past criticism of the militia system. Regular army soldiers, said one toting at Galatz, Rumania. Immediately Withdraw

Troops From Mexico OLLOWING is the conclusi

OLLOWING is the conclusion of the American note sent to Gen. Carranza June 20, declining to withdraw the American expedition from Mexico:

"In conclusion the Maxican Government invites the United Eintes to support its "assurances of friendship with real and effective acts" which "can be no other than the immediate withdrawal of the American troops," For the reasons I have herein set forth, this request of the de facto Government cannot now be entertained. The United States has not sought the duty which has been forced upon it of pursuing bandits, which under fundamental principles of municipal and international law ought to be pursued and arrested and pumehed and international law ought to be pursued and arrested and punished by the Mexican authorities. Whenever Mexico will assume and effectively exercise that responsibility the United States, as it has many times before publicly declared, will be glad to have this obligation fulfilled by the de facto Government of Mexico. If, on the contrary, the de facto Government is pleased to ignore this obligation and to believe that in case of a refusal to rettre these troops there is no further re-course than to defend its territory by an appeal to arms, the Government of the United States would friendship if it did not frankly impress upon the de facto Government that the execution of this threat will lead to the gravest con-sequences. While this Government would deeply regret such a result, it cannot recede from its settled determination to maintain its national rights and to perform its full duty in preventing further invasion of territory of the United States and in removing the peril which Americans along the international boundary have borne so long with patience and forbearance."

shrink from going to the scaffold for what they think are the rights of their country.'

Jones' speech occupied a little mo than half an hour, after which the Attorney-General, Sir Frederick Smith, began summing up. He argued, that even if the defense which Sir Roger's lawyers had attempted to set up was a valid one, the evidence in the case had in no wise supported it. In days before the war Sir Roger's defense might have had some weight but "one circumstance not insignificant had in-rervened—the greatest military power the world had ever seen, was trying to destroy the British Empire."

The Attorney-General dwelt on the uce between the Irish parties. He said the question he asked at the beginning had never been answered because no lessly until Kountz lifted him to his answer was possible. Former Public Utilities Promoter Has Been Missing Since June 4-Body Taken From River.

Several persons who have viewed the body of a man at the morgue taken from the Mississippi River Saturday at the foot of Filmore street, after apparently having been in the water several weeks, believe it to be that of Paul D. Cable, 45 years old, civil engineer and former St. Louis County public utilities promoter, who has been missing since June 4. The body is still at the morgue and has not been claimed. He was once prosperous, but for years had been "down and out," living at various times at

TALKED ABOUT CAMPAIGN Aug. 1st

Colonel Will Make Speeches for Republican Nominee-Taft Also Strong for Hughes.

By Leased Wire From the New York NEW YORK, June 29.—At the threshold of suite 802 in the liotel Astor last Aug. 1. evening, Col. Theodore Roosevelt and Charles Evans Hughes grasped hands for the first time in nearly six years. The Colonel, in response to an invita tion, dined in private with Mr. Hugher and talked over the issues of the cam

"Col. Roosevelt!" exclaimed the Republican presidential candidate, advancing a step from the doorway, where he had stood watching the elevator door.
"Well, Gov. Hughes, how are you?"

heartily responded the Colonel, fairly radiating good humor.

who hopes to be President disappeared behind a quickly shot door and only two waiters caught a glimpse of either during the two and three-quarters hours that they dine! and chatted, It was 7:30 o'clock when they met and 10:15 o'clock when they stenued together from the elevator in the West Fortyfifth street lubby of hie hotel.

Mr. Hughes took the Colonel's arm and escorted him to the automobile that rushed him back to Oyster Bay. "Good-by, Col. Roosevelt," shouted Mr. Hugnes, lifting his Panama hat and waving it, as the Colonel's motor start

Good-Bys Are Most Cordial, "Good-by to you, Gov. Hughes," re-sponded the Colonel, smiling so that most of his teeth were revealed. "Goodby and the best possible luck."

Mr. Hughes turned to the waiting newspaper men, inviting them to his campaign headquarters on the second floor of the hotel and dictated a statement in which he said the Colonel and were in complete accord.

Roosevelt's letter of indorsement, and he has expressed himself in a very kindly way with respect to my telegram to the Progressive Committee. "I wanted to talk with Col. Roose velt fully with respect to issues of the campaign and asked him to dine with me, so that we might have that opportunity. He dined with me tonight and we had a very delightful interview.

"We talked very freely over all matters and are in complete accord. The evening has been a very pleasant one. While Mr. Hughes was furnishing this comment on the meeting with Col. Roosevelt, the latter, who had picked up some of the newspapermen in his car and whizzed them to the Hotel Langdon to stop there for a few minutes and answer questions, indicated how the dinner and chat with Mr. Hughes had impressed him.

Colonel Tells of Meeting. against a single word being placed in potations. But he was perfectly willing have his views

First of all, he wanted it distinctly understood that he was very greatly pleased with his talk with Mr. Hughes. He aws in most hearty accord, too, with the views expressed by Mr. Hughes on the great questions at issue in the cam-paign. Particularly was this applicable to Mr. Hughes' opinions as to matters affecting national honor.

The Colonel admitted that Mr. Hughes had expressed a desire to have the Colonel's assistance in the campaign and Col. Roosevelt had promptly replied that Mr. Hughes most certainly would have his assistance—that he would support the Republican nominee with the utmost heartiness. It was agreed that Col. Roosevelt would make three or four speeches in support of Mr. Hughes in the fall. And the Colonel intimated very strongly that in asking the voters to elect Mr. Hughes he would not go about in a pussyfood way or use weasel words. That was all the Colonel had to say about the dinner and the chat with the man who received the nominat that he so much craved. He inquired as to the latest news from the Mexican front, but did not express an opinion about the announcement by Gen. Trevino that he would return the America

Taft to Support Hughes. Former President Taft said yesterday at Riverhead, L. I., there was little likelihood that the Republican Campaign Committee would arrange to ha him and Col. Roosevelt speak from the same platform in support of Mr.

Hughes. "Campaigns are not run that way,"

He gracefully sidestepped when asked if he would refuse to appear on the same platform with the Colonel, but he did say he would not let any personal feeling interfere with the plans of the Hughes man.ger. He said he is an enthusiastic Hughes supporter, and believes he will be elected.

Prof. Taft's attitude did not indicate that he had decided to bury the hatchet in his feud with Col. Roosevelt. When a newspaper clipping stating that the feud has ended was shown to him, Prof.

He said that if the United States has o intervene in Mexico, the administra ion at Washington "will be to

Accused of Taking $42,019 of Funds of East St. Louis Outlying School District.

State Representative Stephen LePage of East St. Louis, who was arrested last night at his home on 11 warrants charging embezzlement of $42,919.40 from the funds of the Outlying School District in East St. Louis, announced today that he would not be a candidate for re-election to the Illinois Legislature next fall. He was elected State Representative on the Republican ticket two, years ago, being om St. Clair County.

LePage, for nearly 12 years, had served treasurer of the Outlying School District, without pay. Last April, when August Eggman was appointed to succeed him, LePage made known to his bondsmen that he had used $37,000 of the school funds in buying real estate for himself. He exhibited a schedule of the property he owned and placed a valua-tion of $105,000 on it.

One warrant charges LePage with withholding public funds, a second warrant with converting to his own use the entire sum of his alleged discrepancy, $42,019.40, and the other warrants, one for each school district in the township, charge embezzlement as follows: District 133, $764.15; District 134, $699.18; District 181, $2485.58; District 182, $3936.95; District 183, $450; District 184, $324.80; District 185, $14,766.73; District 186, $607.32; District 187, $8748.33.

Le Page was taken to Belleville, where he appeared before Justice Louis Wangelin. He waived preliminary hearing, was bound over to the grand jury and furnished $22,000 bond, signed by his father-in-law, Frank C. Bux of Belleville, and by Albert P. Boneau of French Village.
Although Le Page on April 15 confessed the discrepancies to his bonds-men, State's Attorney Webb was 10 weeks deciding whether to institute criminal proceedings. This step was taken after many futile efforts had Le Page's bondsmen. Seven suits to recover the money are now on file at Belleville, in which the defendants are the men who were Le Page's tondsmen during his years as school

Le Page offered to place his real estate in trust for the benefit of the school fund. Efforts were made by his bondsmen to reach an agreement by which enough money could be borrowed upon Le Page's property to repay the school districts. These ef-forts failed, it was said, because of liens then against the property.

Le Page, after his arrest, said that all he could do was to repeat his as-sertion, made last April, that he is ready and willing to settle.

PATROLMEN MAKE REPORTS ON GOLDEN'S SLUR OF CHIEF

everal Said to Have Laughed When Saloon Keeper Said He Would "Fix" Chief.

Remarks about Chief of Police Young, alleged to have been made in the presence of two Sergeants and several patrolmen, by John (Skinny) Golden, saloonkeeper at Manchester avenue and King's highway, whose feud with Mrs.
Oscar Evans, manager of a restaurant next door to his saloon, has caused several "gun plays" and arrests, are the subject of written reports being made by the policemen involved for the consideration of the Bureau of Efficiency. Golden was a witness last Friday at the Police Board hearing of charges against Sergt. Thomas O'Meara, a case that grew out of the Golden-Evans

Golden, while waiting to be called upon to testify, was overheard to be called upon to testify, was overheard to boast that he would "fix" the Chief of Police, that he would exercise his "pull" and make the Chief look like a "no-

Several patrolmen were within hearing distance of Golden. Some of them laughed at his remarks, it is charged. When Chief Young's attention was called to Golden's conduct he ordered the saloon keeper's arrest. Golden was fined $500 in police court Tuesday and Excise Commissioner Rumsey ordered him to close his saloons on Manchester avenue and at Thirteenth and Market streets.

of Guadalupe Hidalgo, establishing e peace of 1848 between the two puntries, will te invoked in some of ts provisions which contemplates a cossible future state of war.

It will be recalled that by this treaty the United States gained from very full compliance could be expected. Mexico territory which has since be-come the states of California, Ne-vada and Utah, part of Colorado and the largest parts of New Mexico and troops and the very high degree of il- pure.

The situation which precipitated that war was not unlike that of the present in that forces of the two countries clashed on the border, stimulating war fever to a high degree in both countries. It was following these clashes at Palo Alto and at Resaca de la Palma May 8 and 9 1846, that President Polk sent his message to Congress referring to the capture of American scouts and the spilling of American blood, and declaring that a state of war existed notwithstanding all our efforts to vold it."

In the treaty of peace there is one article, No. 22, which looks to a pos sible future conflict and declares: "If (which is not to be expected and which God forbid) war should unhappily break out between the two republics, they do now, with a view to such calamity, solemnly pledge themselves to each other and to the world to observe the following rules; atsolutely where the nature of the subject permits, and as closely as possible in all cases where such absolute bservance shall be impossible:

"1. The merchants of either republic hen residing in the other shall be allowed to remain, 12 months for those dwelling in the interior), and six months (for those dwelling at the seaports), to ollect their debts and settle their affairs: during which periods they shail enjoy the same protection, and be on the same footing, in all respects, as the citizens or subjects of the most friendly nations; and, at the expiration thereof, or t any time before, they shall have fuil liberty to depart, carrying off all their ffects without molestation or hindrance, conforming therein to the same aws which the citizens or subjects of the most friendly nations are required o conform to. HOW CADOMENE TABLETS (3 GRAIN) CHANGED ONE MAN'S ENTIRE LIFE

at Home.

He couldn't sleep at night without the most hideous dreams, he suffered with melancholy, and didn't seem able to go ahead. He was constantly cross and irritable, suffered with diznormal vigor. ss, trembling of the limbs, cold hands and insomnia, fear without cause, and a gen-inability to act naturally at all times.

Physically and Mentally Burton was a nervous wreck, his muscles became flabby, the entire body became weakened and devitalized, his memory was poor, he lacked ambition; in fact, business and social duties bored him and, furthermore, Burton was alarmed. He had reached the stage where he didn't believe his condition could be remedied. He had almost lost hope, but "upon a friend's advice he tried Cadomene Tablets."

Cadomene Tablets Restored Vitality

Now Burton will tell you he is a Well Man. Hale and Hearty, enjoys his work, his pleasures. Life looks better to him, his family means more to him, his business is better and he's glad he learned of Cadomene Tablets and experienced their wonderful revitalizing and strengthening influence on his whole system.

If you suffer as Burton did, the burden of proof of the power and effectiveness of Cadomene Tablets rests with us. We guarantee Cadomene Tablets to give perfect satisfaction, and if they do not prove highly beneficial in your case we do not want your money, and every cent you pay for them will be refunded to you. Cadomene Tablets build up and nourish the entire system. They are unexcelled as a nerve

The Passing of Yuan and at all, whereas that of Yuan changes the whole course of Oriental affairs and marks the end of one of the most dis-

In the late '90s the current phrase in political discussions was the "Break-up of China," an eventuality that seemed inevitable, and that the Powers were by no means averse to assisting. Their only concern was lessomeone should get a larger piece than another. It was during this period that Germany acquired Kiao-Chau, Russian South Manchuria, England Wei-Hai-Wei, and France an extension of the Tong-King "Sphere of Influence." The European Powers ogether agreed upon only one thing -that Japan should be frozen out, and this attitude with its concomitant diplomacy was the chief factor in bringing on the Russo-Japanese war of 1904. It has not been advertised to the world, but the occupation of Chinese territory has proved to be anything but a profitable undertaking. The individual Chinese inhabitants have suffered little or not at all. Indeed, the Chinese laborer has profited exforeign powers expended during the first decade of the new century.

One result was, however, inevitable. The rudiments of national selfconsciousness that various forces had brought into being, received a powerful stimulus of growth. To have the foreign devils seize and occupy portions of the sacred father-land, even if this occupation was mostly an expensive and empty glory for the foreign power, struck the patriotic Chinese precisely as it would us, and they revolted—not against the foreigner, for they had learned their lesson in the Boxer outbreak, but against the impotent and corrupt Manchu dynasty in Pe-kin, whose weakness had made possible such a state of affairs.

People Determined to Act. The Manchu rulers seemed willing to trade off to the foreigners all sorts of concessions, provided they feathered their own nests, and the more intelligent of the people realized that they were being delivered over, bound hand and foot, unless they acted.

The first demand was for some sort of a constitutional assembly and to this the court reluctantly consented. In October, 1910, the first National Assembly convened under the presidency of Prince Pu-lun, whom St. Louisans will remember to have visited the World's Fair six years before. But just at this time Japan saw fit to consummate the annexation of Korea, which stimulated popular ex-citement, and the demand grew to make the assemblies, originally pure-ly advisory in function, real parlia-ments. Fighting began and the pressure was so strong that the Govern-ment at last perforce consented to convene a parliament, after two years should have elapsed for preparation. China was to become a constitutional monarchy.

But the populace and their leaders were not the only ones to bring pres-sure to bear upon the Manchu rulers in Pekin. At the same time the forcigners were twisting the screws, actuated by the not unreasonable motive of getting back some of the money they had spent upon their Oriental col-cnies. The chief item was the proposal to turn over to them all the railways in the Empire to manage and exploit. Such a propesal was an effective weapon in the hands of the anti-Manche agitators and soon the whole south and rest flamed up in revolt, the begin of the great revolution that was to see its successful conclusion the following

Fomenters of Revolution.

A conspicuous characteristic of those who had been foremost in fomenting the revolution is that they had for the were cultured idealists. Such a one is the Christian Dr. Sun Yat Sen. These en had no place in the established or der of things in China. They had to nake their place by overturning that

A very different type of man had grown into prominence during the last wo decades. Yuan Shi Kai was the son of a rich Viceroy, ambitious and a born soldier. A thorough Chinaman, he knew no foreign language and had no ideals. He was a man of powerful physique and indomitable will, but with the craft of the diplomat, as the circumstances of his rise to power reveal. For in 1898, after he had ingratiated himself with the so-called "reform party" and, with the connivance of the young Emperor, ager and execute her favorite nepnew. he "double-crossed" his accomplices and betrayed the whole plot to the Empress. The latter at once beheaded all the Emperor's advisors who could not es-cape and locked up the young monarch for safe keeping. Not long afterwards he passed away, from presumably the same sort of stomach trouble that proved fatal to Yuan.

The old Empress was now in the saddle and the invaluable Yan was suitably rewarded by being sade Viceroy of Pechili. He thus became the most prominent man in China, the "strong man" of the Empire in the eyes of the nan" of the Empire in the eyes of the oreign diplomats, who relied upon un-

First Month of Post-Dispatch League Campaign Draws Near Its Close.

CONTRIBUTIONS, Previously acknowledged$612 06 Miss F. Goldsmith and Carleton Logan lma Hack and Hazel Sutter.

The close of the first month of the Post-Dispatch Pure Milk and Free Ice League campaign for conserving the bables assailed by hot weather perils, is near. Bills for ice and milk supplied for the purposes named will become tue, and meantime the demand for those health agencies is on a steady increase, as high temperature rules. In money raised the period over which the campaign has extended has not been notable, the total to date being consider-able less than $1000, whereas the aggregate actually needed for the season will be at least $5000. The Post-Dispatch entertains no doubt, however, that the sum named will be raised by the children of St. Louis and its neighbor communities. Scores of enterprises are in process of organization by the girls and boys, and these will, it is certain, be supple mented by a substantial volume of individual contributions.

Again the penny as a factor in the saving of the babies has been successfully called into service, this time by children living along Morrison avenue. ried through with a high degree of finish. The admission was 1 cent, and the return was $1, thus showing an audience of 100. The little ones who did this for the cause are Rose Schroeder of 918A Morrison avenue, Ruth and Robert Prochl. Myrtle Woldike and Mildred

Man Gives $5. E. W. Dolch, export freight agent, with office in the Pierce Building, has for years been an annual supporter of the fund, and his contribution of $5 for the current season was among the acknowledgments yesterday.

The impressive army of University City children, numbering 150, who have for several days been working assiduously and intelligently under the direction of Miss M. Louise Arnold, have well-night perfected the three-net over the control of the control well-nigh perfected the three-act oper-etta, "A Golden Gift," which is to be produced tomorrow evening at Delmar Garden. It is a rarely attractive com-bination of spectacle and rich music, every detail of which is to be presented with close regard for finish. Rehearsals have been held daily for two weeks on the pavilion stage on which the produc-tion is to take place, and Miss Arnold says the response by the girls and boys to the instruction given them has been fully reassuring. In confident anticipation of an evening of enjoyment, the public has taken a generous number of tickets, and there is every reason to be-Heve that an audience that will fill the pavilion to overflowing will be present. Tickets for adults are 25 cents and for children 10 cents.

Playlet and Vaudeville. Saturday evening a party of children whose sympathy with the cause of the poor babies has been manifest for sev-eral years will give an attractive show on the lawn of the residence of Blanche Sarah street. There is to be a playle; and about half a dozen sterling vaude-ville acts, and people in the neighborhood have been inspired with a lively interest in the worthy benefit enter-prise. Those who are to bring assured success to the affair are Blanche, Gertrude and Dan Collins, Nellie, Charlotte and Burke Corcoran, Verneta and Earl Mussman and Esther Kiely.

Philo Gill and eight of her girl com-panions, all living in the vicinity of 4000 Easton avenue, will produce an enter-tainment for the benefit of the Purc Milk and Free Ice Fund tonight at Gill Hall, Marcus and Easton avenues. The feature will be a playlet, se's Revue," but there will be othe rs, also of real interest.

Files Affidavit Replying to Judge Holtcamp's Charge Against Circuit Judge.

An affidavit of Neill A. McMillan, chairman of the Board of Directors of the St. Louis Union Trust Co., denying that the company possesses any influence over the mind of Circuit Judge Thomas C. Hennings was filed yesterday. It is in answer to the statement contained in an affidavit signed by Probate Judge Charles W. Holtcamp that he believes the company possesses such influence and asking for a change of venue from Judge Hennings' division in the Theresa Bernero will case.

Bernero will case.

The case came before Judge Hennings in the St. Louis Union Trust Co. suit to compel Judge Holtcamp to grant an appeal from his appointment of Henry A. Baker as administrator pendents lite of the Bernero estate. By the Probate Judge's action the authority of the trust company as executor under the will was revoked. McMillan's affidavit, in part, is as follows:

s as follows:
"Affiant states that to the best of his knowledge and belief the Hon. Thomas C. Hennings, Judge of Division No. 3 of the Circuit Court of St. Louis, to which this cause originally was assigned, is in no wise interested in the St. Louis Trust Co., is not and never has been a depositor or customer of ed business of any kind or character withait, and that neither the affiant nor any other officer of person connected with the St. Louis Union Trust Co. knew that said cause had been assigned to Division No. 3 of the Circuit Court, and that neither affiant nor any other officer or person connected with the said trust company, or in its be-half at any time, directly or indirectly, either in writing or orally, commuicated with the Judge of said division or attempted in the remotest degree to cause or in any other cause; and that in view of the foregoing it is not true that the St. Louis Union Trust Co. has any influence, undue or otherwise, over the mind of said Judge."

venue was presented to Judge Hennings he was indignant over the charge of undue influence and, from the bench, ounsel to "step downstairs" and invite fudge Holtcamp to "come up and make the charge in open court," but counsel declined to deliver the invitation. Judge Hennings then sent the case to Judge Arnold's division.

AN AEROPLANE FOR MILITIA

souri Guards. ment to purchase an aeroplane for the purpose of training aviators for the naional guard of Missouri, and providing naintenance, equipment and instruction; epends on the subscriptions obtained in he next few days. The sum thus far iptions to this fund are being colicitor by H. W. Johnson, secretary or the Misouri State Aeronautical Society, who has his neadquarters at the office of Albert Bond Lambert, president of the society, at 201 Locust street, Checks are made payable to Lambert.

The society plans to buy a machine with which an aviation corps of eight men, for each of the four Missouri regiments, now at Nevada, can be trained. The be at Nevada. While this aeroplane may later be used in actual military work, nen to run the machine which the Government will later furnish them. Similar funds have been raised in 30 states, and the total amount of contrioutions to the national aeroplane fund. has its headquarters in New York, has exceeded $600,000. A similar plan of public subscription, for the training of aviators, was used in France and Germany in 1911, when the Governments of those countries seemed back-ward in this branch of preparedness, and more than 1000 aviators for the use of each country were thus trained. The war has proven their vast value.

AMERICAN MINING MAN SAFE

Thomas Snyder Was Reported to Have

Been Killed in Mexico. DOUGLAS, Ariz., June 9.—Thomas Snyder, an American mining man, reported last Sunday to have been killed by Mexicans east of Nacozari, arrived here late yesterday. He said Mexican civilians, who believed him to be a spy, threatened to kill him, but the military authorities intervened. Snyder knew nothing concerning the reported death of William Robertson and John Watson. Snyder said it was reported in Nacozari that Norton Hand, arrested after a fight with Mexican cowboys in which James Parker and A. R. Dickson were killed, had been killed while attempting to escape.

WASHINGTON, June 29.- The American rejoinder to Austria regarding the Austrian submarine attack on the American steamer Petrolite, made public yesterday by the State Department, describes the act as "a deliberate insult to the flag of the United States and an invasion of the rights of American citizens," and requests a prompt apology ,punishment of the submarine commander and payment of indemnity.

In vigorous language the communication, which was forwarded June 21, made it clear that the United States believes the facts in the case to be entirely different than the Austrian submarine commander reported them to be, and that immediate amends are expected.

The Austrian claim that the Petrolite's submarine, she would not have stopped taken from the steamer by the sub-evident to the submarine commander. commander is flatly contradicted, as are the claims that warning could have been no danger of the ship shots were fired across the Petrolite's ramming the submarine until it was

Text of Rejoinder.
The text of the rejoinder, which is in the form of a memorandum from Secretary Lansing to Ambassador Penfield at Vienna, follows:
"Evidence obtained from the captain and members of the crew of the steamer Petrolite and from examination made of the vessel under direction of the Navy Department convinces this Government hat the Austro-Hungarian Government has obtained an incorrect report of the attack on the steamer. With particular reference to the explanation made by the Foreign Office the following information, briefly stated, has been tained from sworn st..tements of the captain and members of crew.

Never Headed Toward Submarine. that the steamer topped her engines. The captain of the Petrolite denies that vessel was ever headed toward the submarine, and the examination of the steamer made by an American naval constructor corroborates this statement, because, as he states, the shell which took effect on the vessel, striking the deck house which surrounds the smoke-stack, was fired from a point 45 de-grees on the starb ard bow. This was one of the last shots fired and indicates that the ship was not headed toward the submarine even up to the time the submarine ceased firing.

"The captain states that the submar ine appeared to be maneuvering so as direct her shots from ahead of the stcamer. The submarine fired approximately 12 shots. The majority of the shots were fired after the ship had stopped and had swung broadside and while, as even the commander of submarine admits, the steamer was flying the American flag. The captain of the to-amer denies that he advised the commander of the submarine that the damage to the steamer was insigni-ficant. He states that he advised him that the steamer had been damaged, but he had not then had an opportunity to ascertain the extent of the damages. Discrepancy in Statements.
"According to the sworn statements the captain of the steamer and a seaman who accompanied him to the submarine, the commander of the latter stated that he mistook the steamer for a cruiser. This statement is at variance with the statement in the Austro-Hungarian Government's note that the captain of the submarine asserted a false maneuver on the part of the steamer prompted the submarine to continue to fire.

"The captain of the steamer swears the first shot was fired the captain was that he informed the commander of the under the impression that an explosion submarine that he had only sufficient n Not provisions to reach the port of Algiers until the second shot was fired did the and that he would deliver provisions captain and crew sight the submarine, only under compulsion. The state captain at once stopped the engines and ment of the captain of the Petrolite is entirely at variance with the report of "The correctness of the captain's opinion that the wounded seaman was held as a hostage to guarantee the delivery of food seems clear. Obviously the commander of the submarine had no right to order the seaman to remain on board. The fact that this order was given showed that the commander insisted that food was to be delivered to him, otherwise the seaman naturally would have accompanied the captain back to his vessel. The outrageous con duct of the submarine commander and all the circumstances of the attack on the Petrolite warranted the captain in regarding himself as being compelled, in order to avoid further violence, to deliver food to the commander of the Help for Soldiers' Families.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

I notice daily in your paper different article in regard to pay for guardsmen while away on duty. The men who are being paid by the different firms are exceptionally lucky. Allow me to to 18. suggest a plan for the man that loses his pay. Take my own case, for example, if I should be called away, my pay stops the minute I do. I am a married man, with a family of one, earn $15 per per day. Here is the way I figure it out:

Rent$ 4.00 per week. Payment on furniture 1.50 per week I think this is about the way you will find con-ditions in a great many of the young married

Give the wife a grocery book, allow so muc per week per person dependent and keep the other expenses paid up until the man of the house comes called away this would be wiped out at once unless there was some quick action by some persons to save it. One cannot save much on $15 per week. I stood at the armory as the boys marched away with a very bitter feeling against I do not know because I could not go along. I am strong, able-bodied man and an excellent shot with a rifle, also very anxious to serve my country. But—when I think of the little girl at home and the wife I wonder how they would live. But in spite of hell—if our President calls for volunteers. I for one will be glad to answer. How many thousands are there in the same circumstances that I am in?

What is needed is some real action on this matter quick. The question seems to me to be this; If these boys are called away will we keep their homes for them or not? Now, altogether, with a

WHAT CANDIDATES ARE PLEDGED?

The attempt of the Anti-Saloon League to nullify the constitutional referendum, with regard to State-wide prohibition, is a vital issue in the campaign for the gubernatorial nominations of both

The Anti-Saloon League asked each candidate for Governor to give a pledge in confidence that ne would sign a State-wide prohibition bill with "health and safety" clause, if passed by the

The "health and safety" clause would exempt the bill from the operation of the referendum. It would prevent the submission of the law to the people who have defeated a State-wide prohibitheir constitutional right to pass upon the law on the false ground that it is an emergency measure, requiring immediate enforcement to preserve public health and safety.

The people of Missouri have a right to know who among the candidates for Governor have promised to nullify the referendum in return for Anti-Saloon League votes. They have a right to know who among the candidates would nutlify the referendum by signing such a measure. The Post-Dispatch, for the information of voters, asks the candidates for the governorship these ques-

A secret conspiracy to nullify the referendum is intolerable. The candidates for Governor must speak out and tell the people where they stand.

CAMPAIGN SLOGANS.

The Republican party's campaign cries, up to he present, seem to be these:

We could have plunged the nation into war much quicker than Wilson!

How poor we might be if we were not so prosperous now! Maybe that will win a lot of votes.

NO HALF-WAY MEASURES.

Orders by Gen. Carranza for the liberation of the American soldiers held as prisoners by him will hardly close the Carrizal incident. He has made war upon the United States and there should be no quibbles, executive or legislative. as to the nature of the proceeding.

The unwarranted attack upon the Tenth Cavalry squadron, the long refusal to release the captive troopers and the insolence and deflance tion measure. It would deprive the people of of diplomatic communications suggesting an exchange of prisoners—our soldiers to be traded for red-handed bandits-are consistent with nothing but well calculated hostility and an unwillingness to co-operate with the United States for the preservation of order.

It is this hostility that has made it necessary to mass the greater part of our armed forces on the Mexican border. Any conclusion of this demonstration falling short of a complete abandonment of Gen. Carranza's present pose will amount to an invitation to him to engage in much greater treachery and mischief hereafter.

War is an ugly word, but it is not so ugly as war itself. If we embrace war we must not hesitate to accept all the responsibilities, and it would be folly not to make use of its advantages There should never be another Vera Cruz or another Carrizal, the one representing a duty half performed and the other amazing disregard of the threats of an avowed enemy.

Renouncing every thought of annexation for ourselves or of plunder by favored interests, we have a right to demand of the Mexican people not only peace, but a guaranteed peace. Failure on the part of the de facto Government to meet this issue in good faith amounts to continuing warfare, for which the United States is in no mood. War a little at a time is intolerable. The time to settle with Gen. Carranza is now.

We could with only a minimum of risk have protested on behalf of Belgium, small, well behaved nation, when she was exposed to the last extremity of outrage by the brutal violation of her neutral rights.

But, as the Post-Dispatch showed last Febru universal reproduction in the Democratic, Re publican and independent press of the country, during the first months of the war, the only time when protest would have amounted to anything "unwisdom of uttering a single word of protest. WHERE ARE THE HUSKY HERODS WHO MARCHED IN THE PARADE?

HERE are the fearless bankers and all the politicians, the reverends and lawyers, the scholars and physicians? The brave preparedness people who marched in that parade, with waving flags and beating drums and brass bands fiercely played? Prepared to go to slaughter across the wild frontiers-where are they? now the call goes forth for valiant volunteers? Why don't they form in line again and tramp the streets once more on to the recruiting station and enlist to go to war? Where are these husky heroes? Where are they, one and all? Are they deaf and dumb and blind as bats that they do not heed the call? Why do they skulk to cover? Why do they shrink and shirk? And send young boys-mere children-to do their bloody work? We do not understand, we workers are too dense. They lie to us, they laugh at us, they are safe at our HENRY M. TICHENOR. expense.

This morning we donned our September Morn uniform and passed before a corps of army doctors. They probably did more to us than any of the Mexicans will do. They poked us, punched us, stuck things in eyes, ears and nose, and then squirted a lot of juice into us which has made us sick all day.

"Peace has its terrors-No less renowned than war." But we're in the army now, and it's go to the border or to Leavenworth. The main argument

A Story of the North Sea

(The North Sea as a war zone not only figures daily in the news, but it has assumed a direct interest for the United States such as it never had since American history began. In Europe, this ocean, long known a the German Ocean, has figured in history, legend, fiction and poetry since the days of the Norsemen. Today's story is by Heinrich Heine (1799-1856), the great German Jew who was one of the finest writers and lyric poets that the world ever produced.)

St. Louis gained a nation-wide repu-

During the past nine months Smith gave practically his entire time, without pay, to the work of bringing the nanal convention to St. Louis and entertaining the visitors. The dinner was given by Mayor Henry W. Kiel and citzens. After he had listened to many short speeches praising him for his efficient work, a large loving cup was preented to Smith, the presentation speech being made by George J. Tansey. The cup was purchased by a fund raised by nany contributors.

Speakers Credit Him With Much

Telegrams Read to Show Appreciation of Visitors for Treat-

ation as the most hospitable city in the United States by the extraordinary entertainment of the delegates and vistors to the Democratic National Convention, and the "get-together" spirit which produced admirable results in the work of getting the convention for St. Louis will be of immeasurable value in the upbuilding of the city. These were the dominant sentiments voiced at a testimonial dinner at the Mercantile Club last night to James E. Smith, chairman of the National Conventions Association, which brought the convention to St. Louis, and of the Citizens' mittee, which entertained the visiors while they were here.

A report by Richard S. Hawes, chairman of the Finance Committee of the National Conventions Association, showed that out of a total subscription of $103,097.55 to the convention fund, only

Hawes' report showed that there were 2009 popular subscriptions, aggregating $94.625.55; 44 auxiliary subscriptions of $250 each, aggregating $6,600; 18 auxiliary ubscriptions amounting to $1674, and wo others subscriptions amounting to two others subscriptions amounting ls Highly Praised. Martin J. Collins acted as toastmaster n the absence of Mayor Kiel, who was n Philadelphia working with the St. Louis delegation to get the advertising nen's convention. The speakers were most generous in their praise of Smith or his efforts and of the men who coperated with him. One of them, Edward Hidden, was president of the Business Men's League when the convention novement was started and nominated mith for the leadership of the executive ability of St. Louis and the expression f the city's hospitality. Archbishop Glennon said that Smith represented the spirit of the hospitality of the city bet-ter than any other citizen he knew. Melville L. Wilkinson said that the recepion given to the visitors will mean much o St. Louis, and that the Associated Retailers, for whom he spoke, were greatly pleased with the work done for ne city. Barney W. Frauenthal, speak ing for the Pennsylvania Society, which ntertained the Pennsylvania delegation read a telegram from A. Mitchell Palmr, Pennsylvania national committee man, expressing the highest appreciation for the royal entertainment given to the Pennsylvania delegates and editorials from Pennsylvania newspapers stating hat never before had such wonderf hospitality been extended to Pennsylvania people. J. H. Pettingill, presiden of the New England Society, which en ertained the New England delegates, risit to St. Louis. Smith Makes Speech. J. O. Ballard of the Merchants' Exhange was another speaker. Walker Hill chairman of the committee that ntertained the Virginia delegation, and Harry B. Hawes, chairman of the com mittee that entertained the New York delegation, said that St. Louis had done a big thing in a big way, with a big man at the head of its committees, and that the entire city rose to the occasion to make a good showing. Oscar Zeiser of the North St. Louis Business Men's Association: John E. Turner of the West End Rusiness Men's Association, Clarence H. Howard, president of the Business Men's League; R. S. Hawes, who brought in a big bundle of telegrams and letters from Governors, United States enators, Cabinet officials, state delegations and others, in which St. Louis vas praised for its handling of the convention, and George J. Tansey, who reiewed the convention campaign and presented the loving cup to Smith, were said they were all delighted with thei

the other speakers.
Smith made a brief speech, expressing his appreciation of the approval of his work, and saying that a large part of the credit was due to the men who cooperated with him so loyally and un-selfishly to get the convention, and then to see that every delegate and visitor had a good time and went away with a impression of St. Louis.

Divides $4,000,000 Estate Into Six Portions, Heirs Getting Incomes or Shares Outright.

CHICAGO, June 29 .- The will of the ate Mrs. Anna Anheuser Busch dising of $4,000,000 is in the archives of the Cook County Probate Court, afta 10 weeks' trip from Berlin, negotiated through the State Department at Washington. The document arrived yesterday.

Mrs. Busch, who died at Pasadena, Cal., April 8, was the daughter of the founder of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Co., the widow of Ulrich Busch and the sister-in-law of the late Adolphus Busch of St. Louis, Mo.

The will was executed when Mrs. Busch was the guest of her relatives in Berlin and had remained in the cusody of Miss Lilly Alexa Busch, who resides in Berlin. The American heirs heard no word from Miss Busch. From censorship or other causes their letters were unanswered. Finally the State Department was appealed to and cfter it had set its machinery in motion the will was started toward America. After devising her Oregon ranch to furniture, jewelry and art works to her daughters, Lilly Alexa Busch and he Baroness Paula von Kleydorff, Mrs. Busch in her will directed that her property be divided into six equal parts. Her two daughters each receive portion. Her son, Edward, of St. Louis, receives one-half of one portion out-right and the income during his life her son, Franz, and bequeathing her

Women who have trouble keeping their hair in curl, or of securing the desired wavy effect—and especially those who realise the harm that the hot iron dees to the hair—will do well to try plain liquid silmerine. In ne other way can they acquire such pretty waves and curls, having all the appearance of "Nature's own." And the hair, instead of being singed ragged or dead looking, has such a lively luster and wholesome beauty.

If one will get a bottle of liquid silmerine at any drug store and follow the accompanying directions, she will be simply delighted with the result. This product is, of course, perfectly harmless, and there is nothing sticky, greesy or unpleasant about it. The hair will be quite manageable, no matter in what fashion it is done up.—ADV.

"find" of 1916.

But aside from Hornsby, there is little in the new baseball setting to interest local fans, who move from seventh place at Sportsman's Park to eighth place at Robison Field. The Cardinals return from their first raid into enemy's country with very few trophies of the chase. By winning four out of five from the punchless Reds, Hug's men managed to bring back a record of 12 victories and 14 defeats in their first long road trip.

Browns Home Stay Good.

The Browns, who evacuated their stronghold at Grand and Dodler, put together a winning mark of 15-12 in a long siege on the local loam. They pinched off four games out of six from Detroit, which is a feat few clubs can hope to better. They won every series at home but two, losing three straight to Washington and losing three straight to Washington and the odd game in five to Chicago.

And on this day the Browns have a rather strange record. Barring their sad experience with Chicago and Washington, they have either won or tied the series with all other clubs in the league. However, they have made the grade only once in seven starts against the Griffmen, while they bit the dust eight times in 12 outs against Chicago. They have the edge on New York, Boston and a draw with Detroit, three teams who are showing the Brownies their heels.

The affair was a strange one for a final round at a club that boasts of so many racquet stars as does the Triple A. Both players have had years of experience at tennis and are thoroughly equipped with the fundamentals of the game. Both knew how to place the ball, to run back and neatly return arching lobs and both demonstrated almost superhuman endurance. But still, outside of a few "kills" at, the net, there were no more than five points which were decided by a smashing offensive.

Lack of opportunity to see championship form is one reason why more players of high caliber are not developed in this city.

The Yellow Peril Coming.

A N ochre-tinted menace that is neither "yellow-jack" nor Hospital Saturday will be upon us in a few days. And the Triple A will be responsible. Today the St. Louis Amateur Athletic Association wired to San Francisco an assurance that the two Japanese tennis players, Kumagae and Mykami, recently arrived in this country, would be welcomed here at the Central States tourney.

The telegram was in response to a query regarding the chance of the Japs playing in the local event, and virtually assures the presence here of the players from the land of wistaria and cherry blossoms.

The menace lies in the fact that, considering the names thus far entired for the local event, Kumagae and pal will about sneak away with said he had hopes of reaching an agreement with Sallee, although "it was by no means sure" that he would succeeed.

Fielder Jones was in a fine humor yesterday. He smiled and, in unguarded moments laughed out loud as he watched Eddle Plank cunningly coax the Tigers into the pond of perdition. Plank is the apple of Fielder's eye. When the "Old Man" is working right, the whole world seems glad to Jones, who generally has "S-A-D" written across his bulging brow.

But Plank was atmost perfect. He allowed the enemy five hits, walked only two and when a grave crisis threatened to arise in the ninth, he sniped Heilman off first for the third out, a thrilling climax to a game, won 5—3. This was the fourth victory in six skirmishes with the Tigers, who came here in second place and departed in berth No. 5.

Marsans' Great Play.

Plank began operations in a most discouraging way. He walked Bush and allowed Vitt to single. Cobb followed with a tremendous drive to center. Marsana went further than one would speck speaker to go and made the catch. Bush scored and Vitt moved to third on the play. Then Veach filed to Marsana, who rifled the ball to the plate, doubling Vitt.

Andrews May Prove Dangerous Opponent for Duquoin Boxer at Motordrome.

By Harry S. Sharpe.

After an absence of nine years, Fredie Andrews of Milwaukee has return to St. Louis and tonight will box Anderson of Duquoin, Ill., a bout that is scheduled for 12 rounds at the Motordrome. The weight agreement is pounds at 3 p. m. today.

Nine years ago Andrews came here as an amateur boxer to take part in a tournament that was staged by the Mis souri Athletic Club, the boxers of St Leuis meeting a team from Milwaukee am at 105 pounds. The bout was a and scientific one and most of the stators thought Andrews had won, the judges that night decided in to Greaham. I was the referee of bout, but the unanimous action of judges took the matter out of my has lince his advent here as an ama Andrews has had much ring experibosing his first professional bout "Hobo" Dougherty in the latter par 1968, and winning it. Dougherty a wards became sparring partner for Wolgast when the latter was lightwe champion.

Jeff O'Cannell, "Kid" Graves, Otto "Toung" Wallace Mattle McCue, Ever Hammer, Louis Rees Hai Stewart, Billy Kramer and Ritchie mark. In addition to this, for nearly three years Andrews was a sparring mate for Ad Wolgast.

Andrews appears to be a combination of boxer and fighter, As a boxer, he has the reputation of being clever; as a fighter, he is willing and aggressive.

The gemi-final between Charles Daiwits and "Kid" Bandy will be for sight rounds at 12s pounds. They boxed each other on the 11th of last March, and Referee Eddis Randall declared the context a draw.

The preliminary bout will be between Willie Colona and Eddie Meier, six rounds at 118 pounds.

Women are invited to attend the bouts tonight.

The Boxing Commission will held a meeting in the dining pavilion of Meramec Park at 7:30 o'clock this evening, and all persons having business to lay before the commission should apply there.

The commission has made a ruling that all boxers must weigh in at the clubs before which they are to appear in the fore which they are to appear in the future. Notice to this effect will be forwarded to all clubs.

Aha! An Outlaw Club. The Queensberry A. C. announces a boxing show for next Saturday night. This club has not signed the agreement required by the Boxing Commission, and it is probable that all registered boxers taking part in the entertainment will be suspended unless the club meets with the requirements of the commission.

By Robert Edgren.

NEW YORK. June 29 .- Tonight's the night! Jack Dillon and Frank Moran trained and fit are ready to meet to see which is the better man. That's what men used to fight for, many years ago, before there was ch a thing as a championship entailing months or years of vaudeville and circus engagements and careful matchmaking-in short, nodecision bouts that carried no risk of losing that profitable "title."

at De Pauw U., according to information coming from Greencastle, Ind. He is scheduled to take up his new duties next September.

Nicholson is not new at De Pauw, as he was coach there two years ago and turned out a good team. One of his finds was likey Meyer, the sensational sprinter, who created such a sensation in the Big Nine meet of 1914. He also developed several other good track men and was generally rated as the best track coach De Pauw ever owned.

Last year Nicholson was physical director at Sewanee U., and although his team did not make a great showing, it had been hinted that he would return to the South next fall. Signing with De Pauw, though, stamps out all these rumors. Win, lose or draw, the Giant Killer will receive $15,000, Moran $25,000. will receive $15,000, Moran $25,000. It is generally believed that tonight, Moran and Dillon, having no title at stake, merely fighting for a chance to move up a notch, will actually deliver the goods.

Dillon last night was quoted at odds of 6 to 5 on, to win tonight's mill.

Of course, the class of the contestants has its allurement, too. Dillon is recognized as the best light heavy-weight in the world, and a very exceptional boxer and fighter, without regard to weights. Moran is famous as a rugged, cool-headed fellow with infinite patience and a trick of fighting like a fury when his time comes.

Physically, both are exceptional. Physically, both are exceptional. Dilion is a white Langford, Moran is a natural athlete who has developed a perfect fighting machine by careful attention to training, plenty of hard work and a number of ring battles with first-class men. In courage there is little to choose between them. In battle Moran is as grim as a Viking. No man has ever accused either Moran or Dillon of lacking spirit in a hard fight.

Dillon "Never Knocked Down."

accused either Moran or Dillon of lacking spirit in a hard fight.

Dillon "Never Knocked Down."

Dillon began fighting in the lighter of classes and his reputation was made before he outgrew the middle weight limit by a few pounds. He tought all the best welter and middleweights of the past eight years. He beat nearly all of these men, some of them with quick and decisive knockouts. In all he has had hundreds of fights, and his boast is that he has never been knocked down.

Frank Moran began fighting as a heavyweight and as heavyweights have fewer opportunities to fight than the smaller men, his record is comparatively short. He has fought between 30 and 40 ring battles.

Considering the way Moran stood up to the battering Willard gave him and fought back, it seems impossible that a smaller man, like Dillon, can bring him down in 10 rounds. He is a slow, deliberate, awkward boxer. He leans back, holds his left arm out and poises his right while awaiting a obance to send it over. That heavy right is his only dangerous weapon, and he should be much more dangerous to a slow, big man than to a fast tellow of the Dillon type. Still, there is no doubt that he has an advantage in both strength and endurance.
